

RETURN TO GENEVA VIA BERNE - Day 11

Berne is my favorite Swiss city and you're on your own to explore.

I recommend going to the Rosengarten since the walk will allow you to see most of the old town and then the climb to the rose garden will give you some terrific views of the city. The outdoor café is also a surprisingly affordable place to eat considering the location.

Otherwise, if weather is bad, Restaurant "Anker" on Kornhausplatz is a great place for a Roesti (Swiss specialty) and beer. There is also a good beer garden behind the tourist office next to the bear pits.

Ah yes, and the bear pits have finally been transformed into something much more humane.

Call it a "Bear Garden".

Keep in mind that we have a group ticket, so we must take the same train.
