

ALPINE ROUTE - Day 5 - Off the bikes

As you probably discovered last night, there is a lot to do in Thun and after three tough days of cycling and a night of fun, you deserve to sleep in a bit.

You've got the day off: go shopping, see the museums, swim in the lake or follow our guides up the Niederhorn for a bit of hiking.

Those opting to go with us will take a short train ride and then a cable-car up to the summit of the Niederhorn where we'll have 360 degree views of the mountains and lakes of the Bernese Oberland.

The cost of the transportation to Niederhornen and the cable-car fare are not included in the price of your tour and those choosing to do the hike should budget 20 chf to cover this. Our driver will lay out picnic supplies for you at breakfast. Make sure to take a small backpack, suncream, sunglasses, a hat, extra clothing if it gets chilly and comfortable walking shoes.

Once at the top, we'll picnic and then hike along the summit ridge. Or, perhaps rent a trotinette for a long coast down the mountain.

Note: Everyone is on their own for supper this evening, but with a large choice of restaurants in Thun, this shouldn't be a problem.